NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2011

The financial statements cover Humane Society International Incorporated as an individual entity. Humane Society International Incorporated is an association incorporated in NSW under the associations incorporations Act 1981

Note 1 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Preparation

The financial statements are general purpose financial statements that have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards (including Australian Accounting Interpretations) and the Associations Incorporations Act 1981.

Australian Accounting Standards set out accounting policies that the AASB has concluded would result in financial statements containing relevant and reliable information about transactions, events and conditions to which they apply. Material accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are presented below and have been consistently applied unless otherwise stated.

The financial statements have been prepared on an accruals basis and are based on historical costs, modified, where applicable, by the measurement at fair value of selected non-current assets, financial assets and financial liabilities.

The financial statements were authorised for issue on 24th August 2011 by the members of the association.

Accounting Policies

(a) Income Tax

The entity is a charitable institution therefore is endorsed to access the income tax exemption.

(b) Property, Plant and Equipment

Each class of property, plant and equipment is carried at cost or fair value as indicated less, where applicable, any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Plant and equipment

Plant and equipment is measured on the cost basis and is therefore carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. In the event the carrying amount of plant and equipment is greater than its estimated recoverable amount, the carrying amount is written down immediately to its estimated recoverable amount. A formal assessment of recoverable amount is made when impairment indicators are present (refer to Note 1(f) for details of impairment).

The cost of fixed assets constructed by the association includes the cost of materials, direct labour, borrowing costs and an appropriate proportion of fixed and variable overheads.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the association and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance are recognised in profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation

The depreciable amount of all fixed assets including buildings and capitalised lease assets, is depreciated on a straight-line basis over the asset's useful life commencing from the time the asset is available for use. Leasehold improvements are depreciated over the shorter of either the unexpired period of the lease or the estimated useful lives of the improvements.

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed and adjusted, if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with the carrying amount. These gains and losses are included in the statement of comprehensive income. When revalued assets are sold, amounts included in the revaluation relating to that asset are transferred to retained earnings.

(c) Employee Benefits

Provision is made for the association's liability for employee benefits arising from services rendered by employees to the end of the reporting period. Employee benefits that are expected to be settled within one year have been measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liability is settled. Employee benefits payable later than one year have been measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows to be made for those benefits. In determining the liability, consideration is given to employee wage increases and the probability that the employee may not satisfy vesting requirements. Those cash outflows are discounted using market yields on national government bonds with terms to maturity that match the expected timing of cash flows.

(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities in the statement of financial position.

(e) Revenue and Other Income

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable after taking into account any trade discounts and volume rebates allowed. Any consideration deferred is treated as the provision of finance and is discounted at a rate of interest that is generally accepted in the market for similar arrangements. The difference between the amount initially recognised and the amount ultimately received is interest revenue.

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised at the point of delivery as this corresponds to the transfer of significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods and the cessation of all involvement in those goods.

Interest revenue is recognised using the effective interest rate method, which, for floating rate financial assets is the rate inherent in the instrument. Dividend revenue is recognised when the right to receive a dividend has been established.

Revenue from the provision of membership subscriptions is recognised on a straight line basis over the financial year.

All revenue is stated net of the amount of goods and services tax (GST).

(f) Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to prepare for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

(g) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

HUMANE SOCIETY INTERNATIONAL INCORPORATED
ABN: 63 510 927 032
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2011

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

Receivables and payables are stated inclusive of the amount of GST receivable or payable. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO is included with other receivables or payables in the statement of financial position.

Cash flows are presented on a gross basis. The GST components of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities which are recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO are presented as operating cash flows included in receipts from customers or payments to suppliers.

(h) Comparative Figures

When required by Accounting Standards, comparative figures have been adjusted to conform to changes in presentation for the current financial year.

When the association has retrospectively applied an accounting policy, made a retrospective restatement or reclassified items in its financial statements, an additional statement of financial position as at the beginning of the earliest comparative period will be disclosed.

(i) Trade and Other Payables

Trade and other payables represent the liability outstanding at the end of the reporting period for goods and services received by the association during the reporting period that remain unpaid. The balance is recognised as a current liability with the amounts normally paid within 30 days of recognition of the liability.

(j) Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the association has a legal or constructive obligation, as a result of past events, for which it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will result and that outflow can be reliably measured. Provisions recognised represent the best estimate of the amounts required to settle the obligation at the end of the reporting period.

CAMPAIGN REPORT 2011

Humane Society International Inc. | PO Box 439 Avalon NSW 2107 Australia | Ph + 61 2 9973 1728 | www.hsi.org.au

THE YEARS FLY PAST SO QUICKLY that the staff at HSI hardly have time to draw breath – there is always so much to do for so many animals and natural places. As always the time represents a period of successes and frustrations, but also essential work that carries on only because of your determined support.

The campaigns and programs shown in this brief report to you highlight just some of the work in which we engage. Over the past 18 months for example, HSI has directed over $800,000 to approximately 77 projects all over the world.

HSI was particularly disappointed this year to discover the re-emergence of fur apparel containing dog fur in retail shops everywhere and immediately had Australia's best scientists test the garments for canid hairs. That dog fur was indeed back on sale again was confirmed, triggering our new campaign for action by Customs and very broad coverage in the media. We are still fighting on this front!

Besides our work on protecting dolphins and sea lions, HSI has maintained its priority focus on the conservation of albatross and petrel species killed in fishing operations around Australia and globally. It is thought that between 160,000 and in excess of 320,000 seabirds are killed every year! HSI is committed to stopping this atrocity.

Our marine efforts are equally matched by our programs to protect wildlife habitats on land, helping to achieve two land-mark protections this year, with the legal listing of 3.3 million acres of threatened, and nearly 50 million heritage acres in the West Kimberley. Along with our climate change work here and internationally, this all helps to keep carbon in the ground!

A final thankyou to you all for your unstinting support throughout the year, and we very much look forward to working with you again as we head into 2012 and continue our fight for the animals and their environment.

PROTECTING DOLPHINS AND AUSTRALIAN SEA LIONS

HSI HAS HAD GREAT SUCCESS in stopping the killing of dolphins drowned in commercial fishing nets in Australia's biggest fishery. In a 12 month period between 2010 and 2011 nearly 50 dolphins are known to have died. Immediate action by HSI saw a large area within that fishery closed to gillnet fishing, covering an area of approximately 27,239 square kilometres. In addition, large dolphin observation zones have been established with 100% observer coverage by cameras or on-board observers. HSI is continuing to closely monitor the fishery to ensure that no more dolphin deaths occur.

HSI has also successfully continued to campaign against the killing of an estimated 256 threatened Australian sea lions in commercial fishing nets each year, in the same fishery killing dolphins. As with the dolphins, we have been able to trigger the closure of a large number of areas around sea lion colonies to provide greater protection and we're lobbying hard for zero bycatch allowance – and we are getting near to that figure.

SHARKS

HSI CONTINUES TO BE AT THE FOREFRONT of shark protection internationally and in Australia, striving for globally improved fisheries' management practices and an end to targeted shark fisheries in Australia. This includes a goal to see the sale and consumption of shark fin made illegal. As a part of our campaign, HSI has also convinced State and Federal governments to assess the dusky whaler, short fin mako, spotted wobbegong, scalloped hammerhead and great hammerhead sharks for legal protection as threatened species.

THE GREAT APES

OUR SUPPORT for mountain gorilla conservation in the Congo, Uganda and Rwanda continued until the start of 2011 when we began to support the protection of eastern lowland gorilla in the Kahuzi-Biega National Park in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. Combined conservation efforts have seen mountain gorilla numbers increase by around 26% since 2003, while the Chief Warden in Kahuzi-Biega has just established a new ranger post in a previously war-torn area of the Park. HSI also continues to support orangutan protection programs in Sumatra and Kalimantan, and gorilla and chimpanzee rehabilitation programs in the Congo.

PROTECTING THE KIMBERLEY

HSI WAS VERY PROUD to have played a part in the recent addition of more than 19 million hectares (nearly 50 million acres) of the West Kimberley in Western Australia to the National Heritage List. This represents the largest land-based conservation area ever protected under Australian environmental law. The listing recognises the outstanding heritage values - natural, aboriginal, aesthetic and historic – represented in the region, conferring the mantle of the “best of the best”.

NUSA PENIDA BIRD SANCTUARY

WHILE HSI'S Wildlife Land Trust continues to grow around the country, numbering 138 member sanctuaries and covering approximately 70,000 acres, the work of our international Wildlife Land Trust partner sanctuaries also continue apace. Of particular note this year are the successful bird-release programs of the Friends of the National Parks Foundation at the Nusa Penida Island Bird

Sanctuary, off the coast of Bali. In celebration of the fifth anniversary of the first successful Bali starling release on the island (a highly endangered species that now numbers over 100 on Nusa Penida), a release ceremony for 100 threatened Java sparrows (near extinct in Bali) took place amid a throng of village chiefs and dignitaries. Both species are now flourishing!

THE CONSERVATION OF FRESH WATER TURTLES AND TORTOISES

HSI HAS BEEN very privileged to be a partner organisation in a truly global effort to protect the world's highly threatened and fast diminishing populations of freshwater turtles and tortoises. We have helped finance some 32 separate projects in 15 countries around the globe, directly benefiting the survival of these extremely fragile and little understood animal families. We have been able to support this critical work through our partnership in the international Turtle Conservation Fund, a collection of leading conservation organisations dedicated to the protection of these precious animals.

CLIMATE CHANGE AND HABITAT PROTECTION

WE HAVE BEEN ABLE to successfully influence the degree to which the Federal Government's new climate change laws will benefit habitat conservation, helping ensure that "green carbon" programs have a chance to work effectively. At the same time, we have gained protection for the largest area of a threatened ecological community ever listed under Federal law - some 1.3 million hectares (3.3 million acres) of Coolibah – Black Box Woodland – and helped keep carbon in the ground! HSI has also maintained its lobbying presence at the global climate change negotiations, fighting for tropical forest protection as we head into the final talks in Durban in December.

ANTI-WILDLIFE POACHING IN INDIA

EVERY YEAR IN INDIA, many tens of thousands of animals die because of the ongoing illegal trade in wildlife and their body parts. But, this year, thanks to the generous support of HSI donors, we were able to help fund the continuing work of "ForestWatch", an undercover team run by Wildlife SOS - a special force dedicated to reducing the poaching of all wildlife. They work with the forest department and police in various parts of India, building upon their previous successes in bringing down some of the prime poachers in Asia. HSI also supports anti-poaching activities in South Africa, Zimbabwe, Tanzania, Zambia, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Indonesia and Vietnam.

DOG AND CAT FUR IMPORTS EXPOSED

FOLLOWING OUR GREAT SUCCESS back in 2004 in first exposing and then securing a ban on the cruel and illegal imports of dog and cat fur from China, HSI was shocked this year to find major retail shops in Australia selling these garments again. We hit the Federal Government hard over this scandal and re-launched in the media the original footage taken by our under cover team in China of this horrific trade. This triggered TV spots around the country, putting as much pressure as possible on the Government and importers. As we go to print, the Federal Minister responsible is dodging all interviews and we are reviewing legal options.

A BETTER LIFE FOR FARM ANIMALS

THROUGHOUT THIS YEAR'S SCANDAL about the live cattle export trade, HSI has continued to grow its Humane Choice – True Free Range food label, bringing on-board many new free range farmers producing Humane Choice high standard products. Meanwhile, we have been rattling the cages of the Australian Egg Corporation and Australian Pork Limited – amongst others – who are feeling the pressure following a large number of formal complaints by HSI to the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC). HSI's complaints have helped trigger court action by the ACCC against false advertising in the egg industry, while we continue to consider our own legal options.

THE DEATH OF CHAMPA

The following note arrived from Kartick Satyanarayan on September 10th, 2011:

Dear Verna and Michael,

I write with a heavy heart that Champa just left for her heavenly abode and has passed on to happier and more peaceful pastures.

We are currently carrying out her post mortem procedures (required by law in the presence of forest department officials) followed by a burial ceremony.

Champa lives on in our hearts as the founder of elephant haven.

We all pray for her departed soul to rest in peace.

Love and prayers

Kartick, Geeta and the WSOS team

All the team at HSI were extremely saddened by the news, but we know that Champa spent her last two years in peace and tranquillity at the elephant sanctuary, loved and cared for by those that rescued her - eating and sleeping without threat from anybody or anything. We are just very grateful that she was able to enjoy these few pleasures in life before passing away among her new elephant friends.
